The meaning of Salem

Those who walked before us in and out underneath and through the columns of Main Hall
we look to them and seek their guidance.

Their shadows flicker through the lights in the square, their ideas echo
through our minds, illuminating us all.

Their promises to change the world, shaping it through innovative action are now our promises.

Salem is always changing,
but, once one leaves,
it is forever still.

Salem is involvement and is evolving into what we want it to be.
Achievement.... our realities are the hopes of those who dreamt before us.

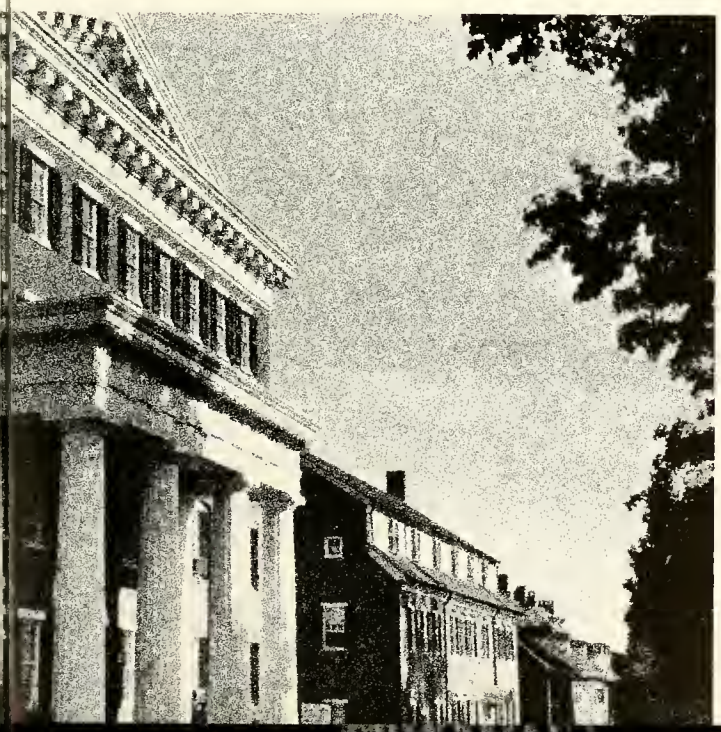
Looking back,
moving forward,
we seek peace of mind.



Salem in a word. . . .

Peace.

Freshmen Sail into . . .

On August 26th approximately 145 freshman arrived at Salem College to begin their next four years of unforgetable memories. The freshmen were greeted by enthusiastic house councils and hall advisors, who helped them move into their new home. Freshmen were also greeted by President and Mrs. Litzenburg, Dean Cobb, Dean Farris, and other campus representatives. As the week progressed the CLASS of 1992 participated in many workshops to enhance their learning abilities, along with meeting the "Salem family." The theme this year most definately describes what the CLASS of 1992 has done, "Sail in with the SPIRIT of SALEM."

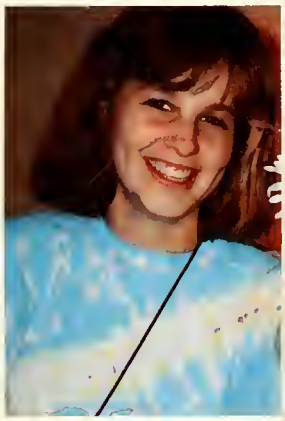
the Class of 1992!!

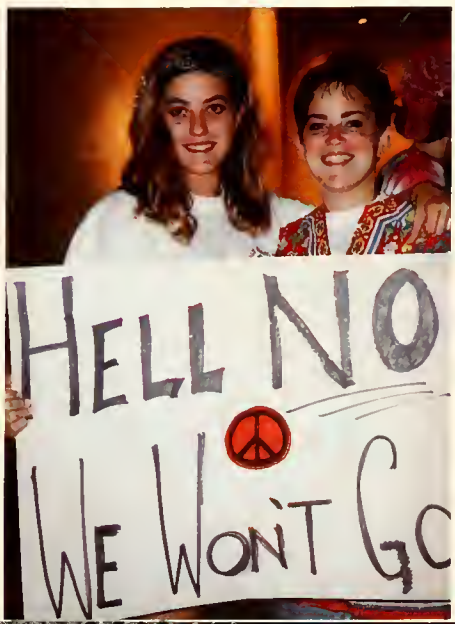
The Big Event

OPENING CONVOCATION..... not only a time for speeches, speeches, and more speeches, but it is also a time of happiness and sadness. FRESHMEN come to Hanes Auditorium for the first time to hear the ritual speeches of Opening Convocation. SOPHMORES and JUNIORS get together to say hello and welcome back. For some this is the first time they have seen each other since last spring.

Then of course, there is the ritual of the SENIORS, from the wine and cheese party to walking down the isle for the first time with their caps and gowns on. For them, there are only two more semesters left until graduation. This is a time of sadness as they realize, it's TIME.

Fall Fest 1988





Ablast from

FALL FEST is a time of FUN, FUN, and more FUN! On September 26th, FRESHMEN, SOPHMORES, JUNIORS, and SENIORS took part in a day of games and competition. The day started out with the Seniors and their ritual of waking up the entire campus at 5:00 in the morning. The rest of the day consisted of competitions in decorations entrance, games, skits, and sister songs. The seniors, of course, came off victorious.

Along with the competitions, Fall Fest is also a time of getting to know one another. This is a good time for the Junior class to get to know their sister class, the freshmen, better. This is when a good deal of the bonds of the past!!

Salem College are formed.

It is also a time when the bonds are strengthened. For the Sophmores and Seniors, this is a happy and sad time. They renew a bond that was established last Fall Fest, and they feel a period of sadness as they sing their sister song, to each other, for the last time. All in all, FALL FEST IS A TIME THAT IS HARD TO FORGET!

The Orient Express takes

Interclub weekend was, once again, a blast for everyone who attended. On Friday afternoon the campus was hopping as dates came from a wide variety of schools.

That evening, it was up to the girls to entertain the guys. Some dorms held cocktail parties, while others left it up to themselves to have smaller "get-togethers".

It was probably best for everyone that Friday night was a relatively quiet one, for Saturday night was

Salem to a great Interclub ammed packed with lots xcitement!

Panic kept things under ontrol on the dance floor by laying a great mix of rogressive music. Little did ney know that the upstairs ooms of the Ramada Hotel vere undergoing a type of enovation"!

Fortunately, the band on Clewell patiio Sunday fternoon was a welcome omfort from Saturday night's un. The Blue Dogs were the erfect remedy for the unday afternoon blues.

Leaders learn effectiveness

On August 12th, eleven adventurous leaders from Salem Community set out on a chartered bus for Camp Miniwanca in Shelby, Michigan. This conference, sponsored by the American Youth Foundation, attracted fourteen colleges from across the nation. While there, these leaders participated in workshops designed to enable the individual to be a better leader in every aspect of their life. The conference also sponsored a square dance, a beach party and cookout, and a scavenger hunt. There was also a ropes course. Each individual came away from the conference having learned, THAT THE EXTENT OF THEIR CAPABILITIES ARE ONLY AS FAR AS THEIR DREAMS.

Move over Indiana Jones, It's the Salem College Ropes Course!

Salem Through a

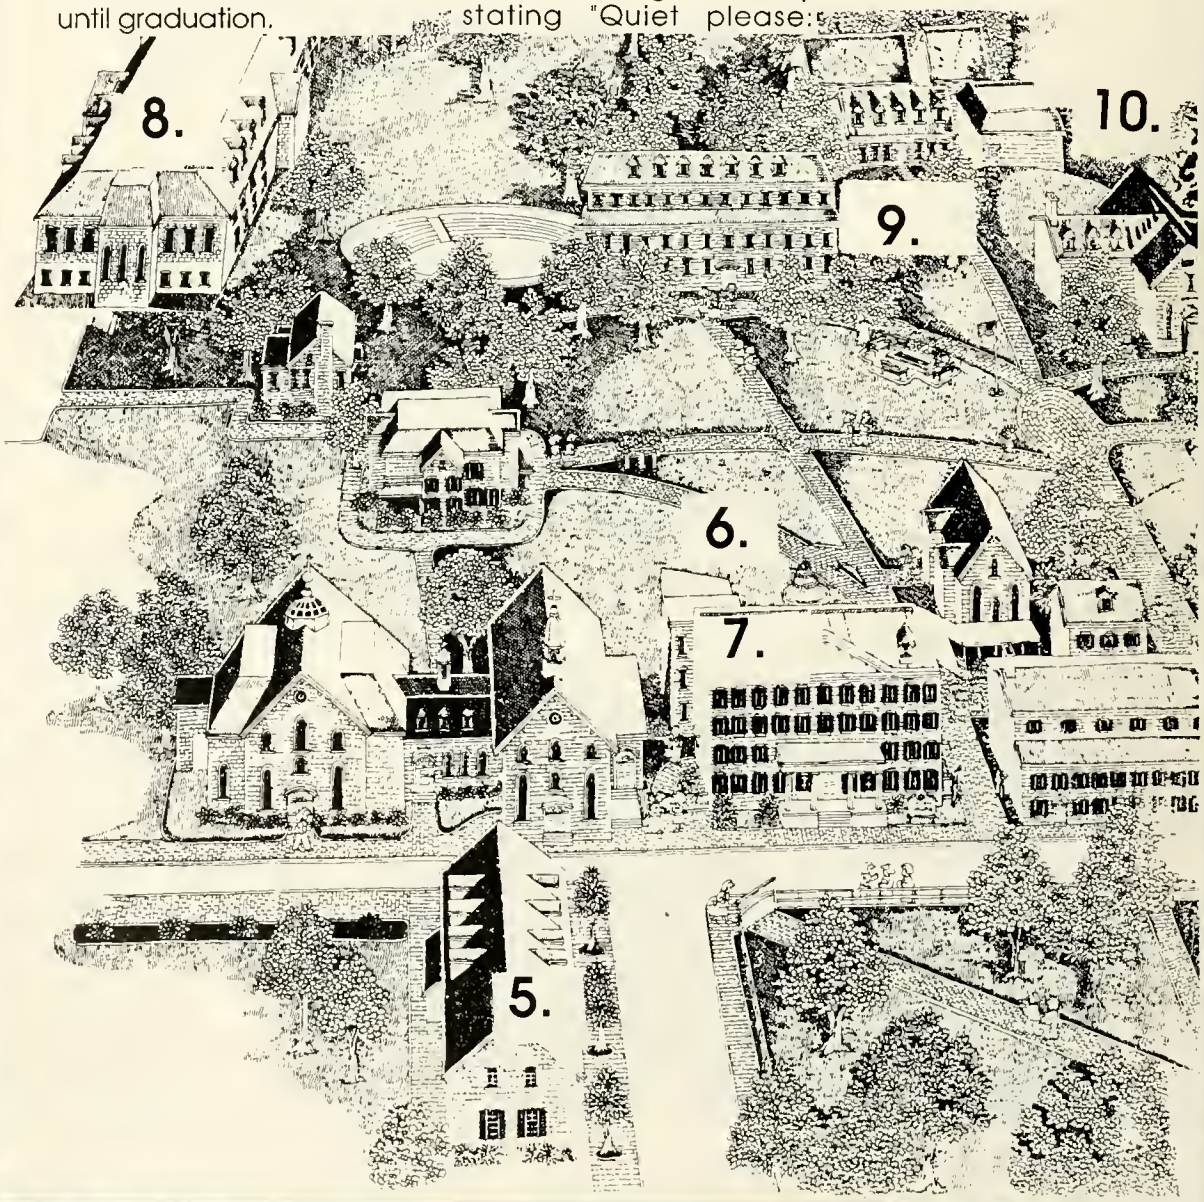
1. Babcock, Gramley and Clewell: The true us: curlers, boxer shorts and "Man on the hall!" Oh, to know what goes on behind those doors!

2. Infirmary: And what exactly are those hours?!? It is the only place on campus that you can recieve enough Sudafed, Pepto Bismol and throat cultures to last until graduation.

3. Gramley Library: The only place in the world where you have to climb a flight of stairs to go downstairs! It is also the best place to scope out prospective IRS dates!!

4. Salem Square: Site of the sixth-grade field trip and the ever present tourist. Eventhough we know that they mean well, the signs boldly stating "Quiet please: Student exams in progress", just never seem to phase them.

5. Salem Gift and Bookstore: Everyone knows that you are not a true Salemite until you own a grey sweatshirt and seven pairs of blue shorts.



Sophomore's Eyes

6. Security: Where would we be without Security to give us joy rides around campus in the Cushman?

7. Main Hall: Because the radiators spew heat twenty-four hours a day, Main Hall is Salem's own version of a three story sauna. It is here we are able to "liberalize" ourselves in everything from Sociology to Spanish.

8. Fine Arts Center: The art in the main gallery is always so interesting. The recitals and theatric productions are equally fantastic. Let's not forget the biggest attraction: SGA the second Tuesday of every month.

9. Science Building: Home of very hungry computers who enjoy eating term papers all too frequently; not to mention the invigorating smell of formaldehyde permeating throughout the building.

10. Refectory: Exactly how many ways can chicken be prepared?! Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas dinners are anticipated feasts.

11. Maintenance: These guys are always ready to help us in a jam, that is when they aren't raking the ever falling leaves or painting the Refectory.

12. The Pit and the Hill: Need there be anything else said?!?

I've been lately thinking about my college times.

All the things we've done and how it's been.
You know we're going to hate to see it end.

We've seen alot of sunshine.
We've slept out in the rain.
Spent a night or two all on our own.

We've known Salem's treasures
Are found within our friends.
And through these four years, we have all grown.

We have to say it now, its been a good time all and all.

It's really fine to have this chance to hang around.

We remember Freshman yeor, filled with so much fear.

As a Sophomore and a Junior, passing time without a care.

Talk of Salem, friends, and memories and theings that we believe in.

How sweet it is to love someplace,
how right it is to care.

How long it's been since yesterday,
and what about tomorrow?

And what about our dreams, and all the memories we shared?

Salem days pass quickly now, knowing it won't be long.

Time around us whispers
when it's cold.
Changes somehow frighten us,

but we still have to smile because we know we'll never be alone.

Though Salem's been good to me, there's still so much to do.

So many things our minds have never known.
We don't want to leave this family, but we have to sail away.

And go into the world all on our own.

Adapted form John Denver's Poems, Prayers and Promises

W[illegible]e here,

Talk of Salem

Salem "soccers" it to the competition

The Salem Fall Soccer team had a very promising season. With the assignment of the new coach, Tony Butlin, the team was able to play enthusiastic games and have a good time on the field.

The team, led by captains, Beth Douglas and Alison Gill, had many new Freshmen join the team. These included : Jean Williams, Amy Meredith, Laura Franklin, Gather Smoot, Signe Berg, Mary Lawson Stevens, Ann Tucker, and Asa Wolgast.

Along with Co-Captains, Alison and Beth, others returning were Rebecca Ferrell, Jenny Savage, Laura Jones, Ashley Tonsend and Jennifer Calllahan. The team assistants are Robin Wilson and Amy Bain.

All of these fellow Salem students join together not only to play a good game of soccer, but also because they are dedicated to the sport and to having a good time.

Salem's Volleyball team soars

This season's Volleyball team has been fast both on the court and off. Captain Patrice Mitchell, has been successful in leading her team to several victories.

One of the team's key advantages is the addition of several talented Freshmen. They have been a great strength to their fellow players.

This year, Salem's Volleyball team has surprised difficult teams such as Montreat-Anderson and their arch rivals, Piedmont Bible College.

Coach McEwen has been known as a great asset to the team also. As of this date, her teammates have awarded her with the "Speed of Light" driiving certicicate in attempts to reach tournaments in the far corners of Virginia and West Virginia.

Unique, demanding, challenging, and fun. These five words define the Salem College equestrian team. Founded in 1983, this newly developed team offers young women the chance to pursue their love for riding and enhance their skills through specialized training which produces quality horsemanship through positive reinforcement.

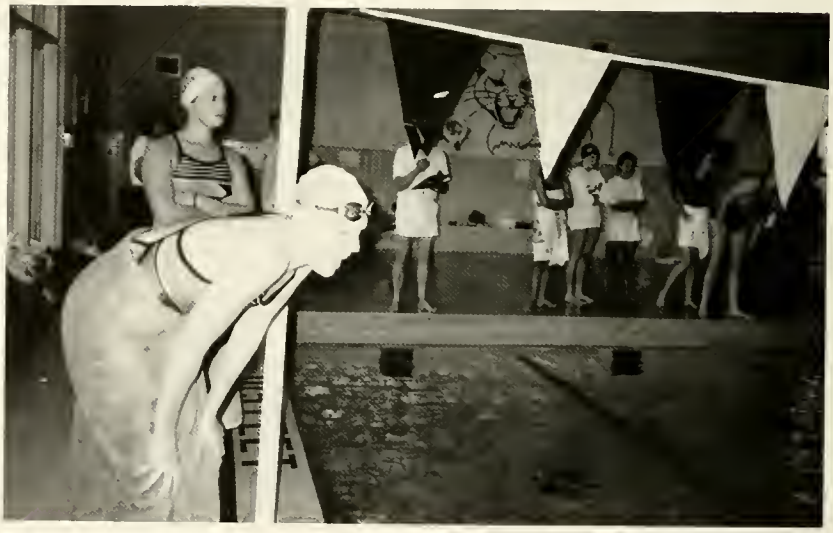
We are in the process of establishing a program for the team which would allow its members to participate in local hunter shows in addition to competing on the IHSA circuit.

The Salem College Equestrian team is a wonderful opportunity for young riders to participate in a competitive equitation program. Self motivation and confidence, along with an interest in riding are the only prerequisites needed to be on the team.

The Team Riders include Joan Pierce, Laura Ward, Anu Sharma, Lisa Beatty, Liz Butler, Leah Petree, Laura Morrison, Karen Lewis, Shelly Boggess, Helen Ganopoulous, Eva Johns, Melissa Murray, Jane Lewis, Kristie Reynolds, Holly Hudnor, Vera Hodges, Annie McLeod, Susie Murphy, Angela Townsend, Brahan Lauffer, Justine Rawley, Jennifer Cleere, Laura Jennings Kim Stevens, Machtelt Groothuis. Miss Lee Trotman is the trainer for the Salem College Equestrian Team.

Salem Swims: The Salem College Swim Team

The Salem Swim team had another outstanding season. They had a good number of meets and, as with all of Salem's athletic teams, showed themselves to be dedicated, talented and hardworking. Good Luck next year!

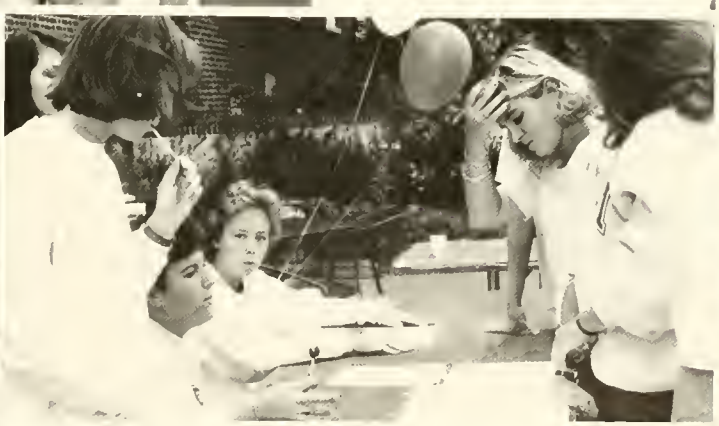


Salem Field Hockey

The Salem College Field Hockey team had another outstanding year. The women put alot of dedication and hard work into making the season a success and their efforts, as usual, were rewarded. the team had a good season and are looking forward to next year and an even better season.

We have seen her edge into our personalities- usually unnoticed until the end of the year,

And often uninvited if we came here in search of curious anonymity.



Gradually, she has thrust on us the oversize cloak of responsibility, making us grow to fit it with increasing ease and uncertainty.

We have enjoyed the animated social chatter about earthshaking events which shook no earth, and refectory conferences about the state of the world outside The Square.

But we have rarely delighted in the midnight reflections of ourselves and our efforts which she provoked.

We are proud of Salem's knack for putting personized

notebooks

on our shelves,

Lumps in our throats, sentimentality in our windowsills and on our bulletin boards,

New ideas and visions in our minds, and new strength in our veins.

We have lived to be grateful for her guidance in our journeys

through the labyrinths of our minds.

She has stood quietly and peacefully,

but with a powerful stance:

One foot in a bygone age and the other on the periphery of our own.

We came to Salem not knowing the sound of the quarter-hour bells that we hear anew every fall;

Not knowing that cobblestones ruin good shoes for week-ends away;

And not knowing that friendships are hammered out in the heat of adversity.

We came, not quite sure that we had ever seen beauty- until the autumn sun set behind the skeleton trees in the Square.

Or until winter gave the May Dell a nap under white, or we saw reawakened images of ourselves in the lily pond.

We never knew until the summer when we were gone.

We came to Salem in search of new experiences-and found them in a hundred Christmas stars,
In brass bands on the street corner, and in rows upon rows of identical white tombstones,
In sisters on Founders' Day, and in exams; in grease paint, test tubes, leotards and practice rooms.

We have found ourselves just beyond our fingertips.

We have grasped at those around us, not as with a butterfly net, but as they have lighted on our shoulders.

And God we have found wherever we have looked and meant to find.

THE CLASS OF 1989 VOTED IN THE FALL OF THEIR SENIOR YEAR TO DEDICATE THEIR YEARBOOK TO DR. CLARK THOMPSON. AT THE TIME OF THE DEDICATION DR. THOMPSON HAD ALREADY TAKEN A LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM SALEM DUE TO ILLNESS. SOON AFTER THIS DR. THOMPSON REQUESTED THAT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS GRANT HIM EARLY RETIREMENT . HIS REQUEST WAS HONORED AND HE BECAME THE CLARKSON SHIELDS STARBUCK PROFESSOR OF RELIGION AND CHAPLAIN OF THE COLLEGE, EMERITUS. ON JANUARY 14,1990 DR. CLARK ALVA THOMPSON DIED OF COMPICATIONS RELATED TO AIDS. THROUGHOUT HIS ILLNESS DR. THOMPSON REMAINED THE WARM, COMPASSIONATE, CARING, LOVING MAN THAT HE HAD ALWAYS BEEN AND HIS LOVE FOR SALEM REMAINED STRONG. DR. THOMPSON GAVE 25 YEARS OF HIS LIFE TO SALEM. HE GAVE ALL OF US HIS GENTLE SMILE, HIS GENUINE, ENGAGING LAUGHTER, HIS UNDERSTANDING, HIS STRENGTH IN TIME OF TRIAL, HIS INCREDIBLE STORE OF KNOWLEDGE, AND HIS AFFECTION.

IN HIS EULOGY THE MINISTER SPOKE OF A STORY TOLD TO HIM BY ONE OF DR. THOMPSON'S COLLEGUES. IT SEEMS THAT A DISCUSSION HAD ENSUED AS TO THE NATURE OF HEAVEN AND THE AFTERLIFE, DURING WHICH DR. THOMPSON SPOKE OF WHAT HE THOUGHT HEAVEN MIGHT BE LIKE. HE SAID THAT HE THOUGHT THAT HEAVEN MUST BE FILLED WITH GLORIOUS, BRILLIANT COLORS; WONDERFUL, DELICIOUS FRAGRANCES; MOUTHWATERING GOURMET DISHES, AND CATS IN BED WITH YOU ON SATURDAY MORNINGS. FOR ALL OF US WHO LOVED DR. THOMPSON WE COULD NOT WISH HIM ANY MORE THAN THAT.

THIS 1988-89 SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS IS DEDICATED TO DR. CLARK ALVA THOMPSON, WITH LOVE.
